DEPARTMENT OF
ART HISTORY

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

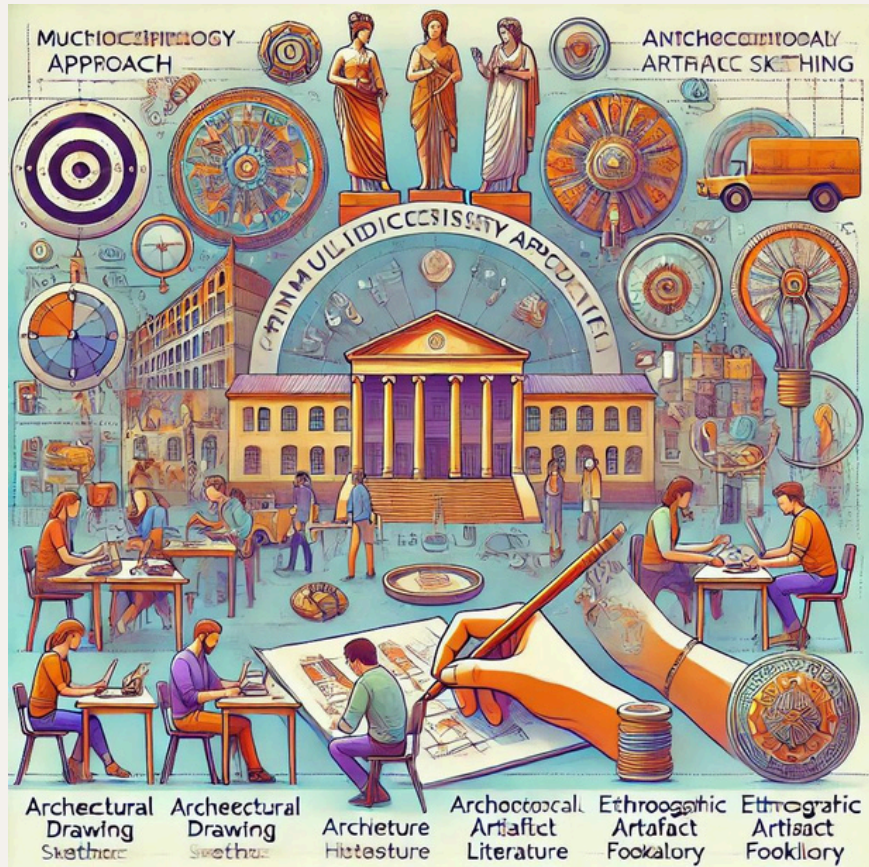

The Department of Art History, within the Faculty of Arts and Sciences at Yozgat Bozok University, was established in 2009, and its Undergraduate Program was launched in the 2018-2019 Academic Year. This program aims to equip students to classify and identify works of art based on their cultural, geographical, periodical, material and technical, stylistic, and iconographic characteristics.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES AND GOALS

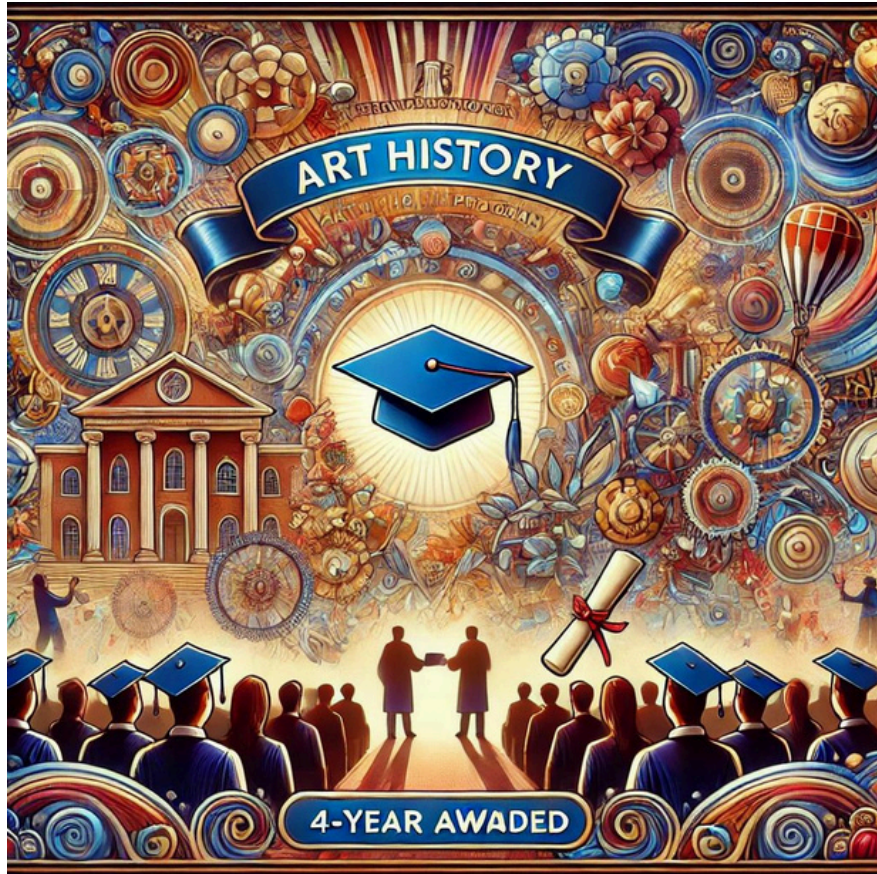

The Art History Undergraduate Program aims to give students a critical awareness of their surroundings. The program teaches students research methods and the ability to use, compile, and transfer information accurately and combines theory with practice. Our mission is to ensure that our students recognize tangible cultural assets and take conscious roles in the registration and preservation of these assets in the future.

INTERDISCIPLINARY APPROACH

The Department of Art History is closely related to archaeology, architecture, museology, history, literature, and folklore. As part of the courses, students also gain architectural drawing, archaeological artefact drawing, ethnographic artefact evaluation, and inventorying skills.

DURATION OF EDUCATION AND TITLE

The Department of Art History is a 4-year undergraduate program. Graduates who complete the program are awarded the title of "Art Historian."
